

Join local author Louise Turner at Abbey Books in Well Street, Paisley on Saturday 14th December 2013 from 1.15-3.15pm where she will be signing copies of her historical novel Fire & Sword.

Based on real characters and events, Louise's debut novel is a tale of feuding and intrigue set in late fifteenth century Renfrewshire.

It follows the changing fortunes of John Sempill of Ellestoun, future 1st Lord Sempill, as he struggles to survive following the murder of King James III at the Battle of Sauchieburn in 1488

www.louiseturner.co.uk

HADLEY
RILLE
BOOKS